Equality and Diversity Workshop for Greener Kirkcaldy Staff Team - 18 April 2017
Evaluation Report
Equality and Diversity Workshop for Greener Kirkcaldy Staff Team

Evaluation Report

Fife Centre for Equalities was asked by Greener Kirkcaldy to design and deliver a half-day workshop for their staff team as part of a staff development day.

Contributions to FCE Strategic Plan

Strategic Outcomes:

- Strategic Outcome 3: Groups, whether already established or just getting started, have the tools they need to engage with their local community in a positive and inclusive way.

Key Actions:

- Promote, deliver and evaluate a range of training opportunities involving internal staff and external partners.

Learning Outcomes:

- Better knowledge of Equality Act 2010;
- Better appreciation of a person-centred approach;
- Being more confident in complying with the Act underpinned by organisational values and ethos;
- Being more creative in engaging and integrating people of different protected characteristics as part of governance, a workforce or as customers/users.

Other Comments:

“Really great session”

“Enjoyed the discussions and listening to the opinions of colleagues”

“Excellent session very thought provoking”

“More time for practical examples of this in practice”

“Very informative and interesting”

“Would have been good to have a general question/answer session as I still have a lot of questions”

“Good mix of presentation and games/group work. Not boring!”

“Good session for a staff session - gentle but informative”

Advice and Suggestions for future seminars/training programmes:

“Felt a bit rushed at times - too much for one 1/2 day session?”

Future training needs/request:

“2 missing members of staff could do with this session”
